PROBABLY 4,000 AT HOMECOMINGS

HARMONY FED MORE THAN 2,000 AT DINNER YESTERDAY.

800 AT PALESTINE; CHAPEL'S LARGEST

Cool, Clear Day With Dust Settled by Light Rain Made Ideal Conditions for Churches.

It's rather a safe guess that several thousand people in Nodaway County did not eat any supper last night. Not that there is any poverty abounding at this time but there were, well, around four thousand people at the three homecomings of Harmony, Palestine and Workman Chapel churches yesterday for dinner.

The writer hereof did not want any supper, managing to get along very well until this morning on a grape phosphate. And from what he saw at Harmony he did not eat any more in proportion to size than did any of the rest. So the conclusion is drawn that many suppers were dispensed with last night.

The Rev. C. R. Green, pastor of Harmony, left little guesswork concerning the crowd at the annual Homecoming of his church. All the guests at dinner were supplied with paper pie plates. These were wrapped in bunches of twenty-five and the bunches were counted. More than two thousand plates were distributed and many did not take the paper plates, eating in dishes brought from home.

The committee on parking counted the cars and more than 250 automobiles were drawn up in the pasture to the south of the church before the dinner was finished. As for the horse-drawn vehicles, one would have needed to take an hour off to count them. They stretched along the fences for hundreds of yards in every direction and five hundred seems most conservative as an estimate.

Prebably 800 at Palestine.

About eight hundred persons attended the twenty-first anniversary of the founding of the church at Palestine twelve miles southwest of Maryville yesterday. The Rev. S. D. Harlan preached the sermon in the morning, after which dinner was served to 600 guests in the grove near the church.

The afternoon program consisted of songs by the church members of solos and readings by some of the visitors, and an address by the Rev. C. Emerson Miller of the Christian church of Maryville. A quartet consisting of Hal Catterson, H. J. Becker, Mrs. C. A. Bone and Mrs. Alpha Bishop of Maryville gave several selections.

Workman's Chapel reports the largest crowd which they have ever had at an anniversary day. Yesterday was their golden jubilee of the dedication of the church. The Ray Davis gospel team of the Baptist church of Maryville and the Rev. Agnew Dugar of Stanberry were the speakers there.

The day was a delightful day for such events, being cool and yet clear. A light rain Saturday night had settled the dust but did not make the roads very muddy except in a few localities. The services were somewhat delayed in starting because of the rain.

J. M. Glass of Pasadena, Cal., a temperance lecturer, who will speak at the Presbyterian church here tomorrow night, was added to the program at Workman Chapel.

Harmony Highly Complimented Again.

Dr. Lyman E. Davis of Pittsburgh, Pa., said in opening his sermon at Harmony yesterday morning that he was accomplishing then what he had long desired—to see Harmony community in Nodaway county, Missouri. Mr. Green said in his introduction of the speaker that an invitation had been extended every year for a number of years to the man who had been secured this year, the president of the Methodist Protestant church.

Dr. Davis said that Harmony community was not only well known among the Methodist Protestant denomination but was famous all over the country as was shown by the placing of its pastor on the rural life

MISS JOSIE B. CARDEN DIES

Sarcoma Fatal to Woman of 37 Who Returned Ill From Kansas City Recently.

Miss Josie B. Carden, 37 years old, died at 5 o'clock yesterday morning at the home of her parents, on East Seventh street. She had been ill for about six months with sarcoma, which finally resulted in her death.

Miss Carden was born May 12, 1879, in Nodaway county, and has lived in or near Maryville ever since. For the last six years she worked in Kansas City ,returning to her home last January.

She is survived by her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Carden, and by seven brothers and sisters: Fred Carden of Trenton, Leo Carden of Barnard, Mrs. Mary A. Lanning, Volin, S. D.; Bessie M., Nellie, Annie, Gladys and J. W. Carden of Maryville.

The funeral took place at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon from the Christian church, the Rev. C. Emerson Miller officiating. Burial was at the I. O. O. F. cemetery at Quitman.

WILSON "SHOULD WORRY"

Indications Strong That Hughes Cannot Carry New York—Comments on the Conventions.

(By W. C. Van Cleve.)

Washington, D. C., June 15, 1916.—Republicans and Progressives have now had time to take a partial inventory of the results of the Chicago affair and to begin to estimate the G. O. P.'s "present worth." It is pretty generally conceded that the old guard leaders "made the best of a bad job," as one Republican has expressed it. That does not apply to the Bull Moose situation. That party, under the skillful leadership of its noisy sire and the clever manipulations of the Root-Smoot-Lodge machine, was enveloped in a cloud of poison gas and laid to rest without the formality of a funeral.

The great Theodore having failed to impress himself upon the old guard gathering, scuttled his faithful ship "Bull Moose," jumped into a lifeboat and left his crew to battle with the sad sea waves unaided. And yet, he did the only logical thing for a man who has a consuming desire to get back into the White House. He accepted his punishment for having been once a bolter, knowing that a repetition of his 1912 performance would end his right to commune with Republicans, and slid gracefully back without either condemning or commending the Republican nominee. If Mr. Hughes should be elected, Mr. Roosevelt can say, I got out of the way and made his election possible. If he is beaten, Mr. Roosevelt can point with pride to the fact that they chose the wrong man and warn them against such mistakes in future.

The Republican convention furnished much in the way of contest and bitterness of spirit but the usual convention enthusiasm was as scarce as fans in a cold storage plant. The big leaders had a great work to perform and they set about it with a grim determination that meant good night to Progressive control. It mattered little to them what became of the noisy demonstrators buzzing over in the other hall, if they could only get the king bee where they wanted him. The convention met under most extraordinary circumstances. They had neither a real candidate nor an issue. Gov. Harding "keynoted" like an orator without an issue and like one who didn't know where to strike for a note nor where to look for the instrument that contained an agreeable tune. His speech was a painful admission of political bankruptcy. He spoke as if to an assemblage of dead men waiting some Gabriel to call them into life and existence.

Unwilling to accept any of their willing candidates, they reached into the supreme court, violating the traditions of 128 years, and conscripted a man who was waiting patiently for the sacrifice. Surprised as he was, Justice Hughes overcame the shock, resigned his place on the bench and gave out to

CALLS MILITIA OUT

PRESIDENT ASKS STATE GUARDS TO MOBILIZE.

MISSOURI'S TO NEVADA

All Regiments Will Be Held in Readiness at State's Regular Encampment Grounds.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Washington, June 19. — President Wilson has called out the militia of every state for service on the Mexican border.

The proportion of the militia which will actually be sent to the border has been determined upon by the war department.

In announcing the president's decision late yesterday Secretary Baker said the militia would be sent to the border wherever and as fully as Gen. Funston determined them to be needed.

Baker Issues Statement.

Secretary Baker issued the following statement:

"In view of the conditions on the Mexican border and in order to insure complete protection for all Americans, the president has called out substantially all the state militia and will send them to the border, wherever and as fully as Gen. Funston determines them to be needed for the purpose stated.

"If all are not needed an effort will be made to relieve those on duty there from time to time so as to distribute the duty.

"This call for militia is wholly unrelated to Gen. Pershing's expedition and contemplates no additional entry in Mexico, except as may be necessary to pursue bandits who attempt outrages on American soil.

"The militia are being called out so as to leave some troops in the several states. They will be mobilized at their home stations where necessary recruiting can be done."

Organizations of the militia and national guard called out by telegrams to the governor of Missouri with place of assembly designated as follows:

One brigade of three regiments and two separate battalions and one separate company of infantry, one troop cavalry, one battalion field artillery, one company signal corps, one field hospital, one ambulance company, at Nevada.

WANT HAY BILL AT ONCE

BAKER ASKS IMMEDIATE SENDING OF MILITIA TO BORDER.

Kansas and Missouri Report That National Guards Are Being Mobilized Rapidly.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Washington, June 19.—Secretary of War Baker went before congress today and asked that the Hay military bill be made effective at once instead of July 1.

This would make it possible for the militia of the states available for immediate service in Mexico.

Missouri to Full Strength.

Nevada, June 19.—Brig. Gen. Harvey C. Clark notified Gov E. W. Major today that the national guard of Missouri will be recruited to its full war strength immediately.

2,000 Kansans to Fort Riley.

Topeka, June 19.—More than 2,000 Kansas guardsmen will be rushed to Fort Riley within forty-eight hours. This number can be increased to the full war strength of 4,000 if necessary. Two regiments will be organized immediately to take the place of those sent to the border.

HAWAII ORDERS ROBEY EGGS

Sweepstakes Winner at Last County Show Gets Letter Which Takes 14 Days to Come.

Otho Róbey received this morning an order for fifty eggs from M. Ogata of Waimea, County Kauai, Hawaii. It took the letter fourteen days to come. Mr. Robey is a breeder of single comb White Leghorns and at the last county poultry show took the sweepstakes prize.

MAY BUILD AT ONCE

PREACHERS DESIRE TABERNACLE FOR AUGUST MEETINGS.

SCOVILLE DOESN'T CARE

Evangelist Who Will Come in September Desires Only That His Builder Be Present During Construction.

The Maryville tabernacle for the Scoville meetings may be built at once so that the union meetings of the Protestant churches may be held in it during August. A meeting of the Ministerial Alliance will be held tomorrow morning to consider the proposition.

Charles Reign Scoville, the evangelist, who is now in a meeting at Denton, Tex., writes that he has no objection to the building of a tabernacle here earlier if the churches will pay for the extra month's insurance and see that the structure is properly guarded.

Mr. Scoville desires also to send his tabernacle man when the construction is begun so that the usual architecture of the Scoville tabernacles may be observed. The location of the tabernacle has not been decided upon but the Kelly lots on East Third street where the tent shows are usually held seems the most probable.

Dr. Scoville adds in his letter to the Rev. R. C. Holliday, secretary of the alliance, that a definite date for the meetings here will be set as soon as possible. As well as can be known now, the time will be September 1. More than 1,000 people professed Christianity in the first week of the meeting at Denton.

20,646 HIT K.C. TRAIL

2,121 CONVERTED IN CLOSING DAY OF 7 WEEKS' REVIVAL.

Thank Offering of $32,000 Given to Evangelist—Preached 92 Sermons to 1,356,000 Persons.

Kansas City, June 19.—Billy Sunday departed from Kansas City last night with a cashier's check for $20,000 in his pocket, which the people gave to him as a thank offering.

In his campaign of seven weeks he preached ninety-three sermons in the Tabernacle to 1,356,000 persons, and 20,646 of them "hit the sawdust trail." The ministers of this city say that several thousand were converted in the meetings who did not hit the trail.

Seventy-five thousand persons heard him preach yesterday. Two thousand, one hundred and twenty-one "hit the sawdust trail."

TOPEKA SCHOOL HEAD HERE

Prof. H. B. Wilson to Speak at Three Assemblies—Conservatory Faculty There Thursday.

Prof. H. B. Wilson, superintendent of the Topeka city schools, will be in Maryville this week and will be the speaker at the State Normal school for the regular assemblies from 9 to 9:40 Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday mornings. He will visit and speak in various classes of the Normal during the week.

Professor Wilson takes the place of Superintendent J. A. Whiteford of St. Joseph, who has had this place the last two years. He will discuss educational problems during the week.

The faculty of the Maryville Conservatory of Music will give a recital at the Normal assembly Thursday morning at 9 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to all of the assembly programs of the Normal

GOOD CROWD AT PARNELL

Catholics Celebrated Silver Jubilee of Church—Class of Thirty was Confirmed.

The Catholics of Parnell celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of the erection of their church yesterday. The Rev. Father Bertholdt, who was the first pastor at Parnell, was present at the services.

In the morning high mass was sung by the Rev. Father Joseph, who is now pastor of the church. In the afternoon the Rt. Rev. Bishop M. F. Burke of St. Joseph confirmed a class of thirty adults and children. A number of the former members of the parish returned to help celebrate the silver jubilee.

James Merrigan of Clyde was a Maryville visitor yesterday.

BAND HERE MUST GO

MEMBERS ENLISTED IN FOURTH REGIMENT OF MISSOURI.

MUST BE READY AT ONCE

Governor Major Has Ordered All Companies of State to Nevada—Must Leave Tomorrow.

Special Bulletin.

Orders were received by telephone at 3 o'clock this afternoon for the Fourth Regiment band to get in readiness to go to Nevada by tomorrow night. Prof. H. B. Maulding is in Stanberry, but the order was accepted by his son, who is passing the orders on to the members.

The members here believe that all enlisted men will probably go to St. Joseph tomorrow night to join the regiment and that all will go to the state encampment at Nevada Wednesday. The orders came from Colonel John D. McNeely at St. Joseph.

Such an order has been expected at any time, as the band members are enlisted in the Fourth regiment of Missouri. Company F was mustered out recently.

James E. Howery of Bethany, Mo., a Normal student here, received a message today from the company of the Fourth Regiment in his home town ordering him to report at once. He is captain of one of the Normal baseball tournament teams. Claud Wilson of this city, who enlisted in the Tarkio company after Company F here was mustered out, has not received any word yet but is expecting an order to come there at any hour.

"I want Missouri's national guard to be the first to respond," said Governor Major at Jefferson City last night. "It will be under command of Gen. Henry C. Clark, with whom I have been already in communication. He is now getting our preliminary orders to regimental commanders."

All companies will be ordered to Nevada. An attempt will be made there to recruit those lacking in numerical strength up to the standard required, which is sixty-five. The maximum is 150 per company.

Captain W. M. Mann of St. Joseph, adjutant to Colonel John D. McNeely, will come to Maryville Wednesday. His visit is connected with the new army pay bill which goes into effect July 1 and was arranged before Wilson's mobilizing order was made.

SALOONLESS WEEK QUIET

Not an Arrest in First Six Days Without Booze—Big Crowd Thursday Notwithstanding.

The first week of a saloonless Maryville passed without a single arrest or a single case being tried before the police court. This happened in spite of the fact that Thursday brought one of the biggest crowds in the history of Maryville. Thus far there has been no disorder and so far as can be learned no violations of the local option law in any flagrant or open way.

Drs. Sargent and Maxwell of Wilcox were in Maryville on business today.

WILSON REPLY SENT

CARRANZA IS TOLD NO TROOPS CAN BE WITHDRAWN.

NEW DEMAND FROM THEM

Arredondo Warns Washington That Warships Must Not Land Any Sailors on Soil.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Washington, June 19.—The official text of the note of the United States government in reply to Carranza's demands for withdrawal from Mexican soil, was sent forward today. A copy was also given to Arredondo, the official Carranza representative in Washington.

The contents were not made public. It is well understood, however, that President Wilson refuses point blank to withdraw the troops of the United States. It points out that the bandits would already have been stamped out if Carranza had co-operated.

Wilson also gives a frank warning against any over act by the Mexican troops which might precipate hostilities.

Reports that the President was planning to ask a joint session of the two branches of congress were denied. Wilson said that the question had not yet been considered.

The quick responses of the national guards of the states gratifies the President and other officials very much.

New Demands From Carranza.

The Mexican government through Arredondo, demands today that orders be issued to the commanders of all U. S. warships in Mexican waters that they shall not land any men on Mexican soil. Arrendondo admitted that the demand was presented at the request of Carranza.

He said that the request was made to prevent certain attack upon the sailors if such an attempt is made. The Mexican embassy confirmed reports of a clash between American soldiers and the Mexicans at Mazatlan.

Carranza Will Force War.

Official circles at Washington are almost unanimous in their belief that Carranza will force the issue and that war is inevitable. It is confidently believed that Carranza will construe the request of President Wilson to use the militia of the states in Mexico as equivalent to a declaration of war.

WAR WITH MEXICO SEEMS INEVITABLE

ACTIVE PREPARATIONS ON BIG SCALE ALONG BORDER.

CARRANZA MUST YIELD OR IT'S INTERVENTION

Sixteen Warships Will Soon Be in Mexican Waters—135,000 Soldiers Soon Ready.

Special to the Democrat-Forum.

San Antonio, June 19.—War preparations on a big scale are in progress all around the border and the belief exists that the final crisis has been precipitated by the defiance of General Pershing, who informed Trevino that he would move troops wherever necessary.

Special precautions have been taken to guard the line of communication and the cavalry at Brownsville is being held in readiness to cross the border in the event of further trouble.

Between eighty and eighty-five thousand guardsmen are expected on the border as a result of President Wilson's call, making a total force of about one hundred thirty-five thousand men ready for active service in Mexico.

State Militias Almost Ready.

Washington, June 19.—Word received from the militia of all states ordered out that they have mobilized in answer to President Wilson's call. Some states were better prepared and will be ready to move by tomorrow.

The President has also under consideration a call for volunteers which will be withheld until it is found just what Carranza intends to do. It is generally conceded that Carranza must back down completely or the United States will pacify Mexico. With conventions out of the way, administration officials declared that no further fooling with Mexico is expected.

In addition to army activity sixteen warships are either on the way to the Mexican waters or about to sail. Word was received this morning that General Serrano, chief of the staff to Obrejon, arrived in Juarez and took command.

What was described as an important communication was delivered by the Mexican Embassy to the state department this morning.

Consul Hanna notified the department that John Stillman, one of the last consuls in Mexico, left Saltillo for the border yesterday.

Has Yucatan Declared War?

El Paso, June 19.—It is reported here that the Mexican state of Yucatan in southern Mexico has declared war on the United States. No confirmation could be secured.

NOT EVEN A FUNERAL

the public within two hours a sizzling letter of acceptance. It smacked of careful preparation and smelled of midnight oil, and the convention, never fearing, adjourned before they received his acceptance.

Justice Hughes is a big man. Under present circumstances, there is doubt if a stronger man could have been nominated but, while somewhat independent in his conduct, he is a true Republican of the eastern variety. The men who controlled the Chicago convention had it in their power to prevent his nomination had it not been acceptable to them. He is wedded to the theory of protection and wealth has nothing to fear from his political record. While governor of New York he asked the legislature to not ratify the income tax amendment to the federal constitution. He vetoed the 2-cent fare on railroads bills and he vetoed the full crew bill much to the dissatisfaction of the railway trainmen.

The nomination of Mr. Hughes makes it reasonably certain that Wilson will carry the state of New York. It will guarantee to him thousands of Democratic and independent voters who have no particular love for Wilson but who will not even consider Hughes.

Man for man, there is nothing in Hughes to alarm the friends of Wilson. He is forceful and able, but cold and without magnetism. He is somewhat independent but he is not progressive. He has no issue on which to run except to find fault and demand a return to the trust breeding and feeding policies of the old party. Criticism of the president's foreign policy is indefinite. No one undertakes to say what he could have done to better the situation. The president has kept out of war. The only other definite thing that could have been done is to have plunged into war. Is Mr. Hughes ready to say that we should have gone into the great struggle across the water or is he willing to say that we should have bent the knee at the demand of foreign interests? Mr. Wilson did neither. His policy has been to uphold the national honor peaceably if possible, but forcibly if necessary. The necessity for force has not yet arisen and there is no indication that it will so far as Europe is concerned.

CHIGGER TIME IS HERE

So U. S. Service Tells How to Stop the Itching Before Scratching Starts.

Washington, D. C., June 16.—If a bath in hot water, or in water containing salt or strong soap, is taken within a few hours after exposure in shrubbery and weeds infested with "chiggers," or "red bugs," no ill effects will be experienced. After a long exposure however, a bath has practically no effect, and direct remedies are necessary.

After irritation has set in, and small red spots appear, the application of a moderately strong solution of ammonia to the affected parts is recommended by the Department of Agriculture's entomologists. A supersaturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, or common cooking soda or saleratus, will afford relief. Liberal applications should be made until the irritation subsides. If the suffering is severe, a dilute tincture of iodine or collodic should be lightly applied.

committee of the Federal Council of Churches in America.

The sermon of Dr. Davis was upon the subject "Every Man a Minister." His text was "And he brought him to Jesus." Taking the example of a community church, the preacher said that every individual has a community of influence around him whether he recognizes it or not. He is responsible to God for this community.

Sincerity, sympathy, contentment and consecration were the four virtues recommended by the speaker for one to be effective as a minister. The special Methodist Protestant doctrine of a family altar in every home was emphasized as one of the great needs of the country spiritually.

Hour's Musical Program Given.

After the huge crowd had been fed from four long tables in the grove, an hour's musical program was given by the choir, orchestra and individuals. A male quartet from Maryville sang several numbers. Ed Goodspeed, Arch Carter, Fred Lewis and Maurice Fitzgerald made up the quartet, being accompanied by Mrs. Carter. The Rev. G. S. Cox sang "Somebody Knows."

W. L. Nelson, assistant secretary of the state board of agriculture of Missouri, kept the crowd laughing for over an hour following the musical program as he told of country life and his early days. He spoke from the platform in the grove where the afternoon meeting was held. He said that it was most appropriate to have a Ph.D. theologian in the morning and an A.B.C. farmer in the afternoon to speak.

Mr. Nelson spoke highly of the work of the church and pastor and said that there was a great inspiration in a meeting where everyone was on the common basis of Christianity and manhood, not denomination or class. He said that Harmony was proving the well known belief that reform of agricultural conditions must come from the owners of the land

"I heard a speaker say recently," said Mr. Nelson, "that the country ought to be proud of the fact that 85 per cent of the men who make good in the cities come from the country. I disagree. It seems to me that the country should be ashamed that it did not provide enough work and surroundings that some of those men of brains and leadership would remain in the country.

Country Should Be Proud.

"We farmers should be proud of the country. We ought to be proud enough to provide good schools, good churches and good roads to get to them. We ought to be proud of our farms enough to name them and put the name on the front gate. We ought to be too proud to let a merchant put boxcar-sized letters on the roof of our barn unless he will let us advertise our products on his garage in town.

"We ought to realize that the country's best crop is its children, and provide teachers for them who know the difference between an Italian spelling and husking bee. We should impress upon them that there is more in life than making money or a living and that the country is great because it makes neither millionaires nor mendicants."

Mr. Nelson said that he was thankful that batteries of binders were filling graneries with grain in this country instead of batteries of guns filling graveyards with bodies of slain men. He repeated that he was convinced that the strength of America is in its farms and country life, not its battleships.

The Rev. G. S. Cox of Maryville followed Mr. Nelson in a short address on "Love the Brethren." He said that this was easy as long as we keep in general terms but hard when we get down to the particulars. Mr. Cox said Harmony was a fine example of "Love the Brethren" in actual practice.

All Committees Worked Well.

Mr. Green said that the homecoming this year had been most successful and particularly so because every committee and committeeman worked and the pastor had little routine to look after. After a cordial invitation to come again next year, the final benediction was pronounced by E. M. Houchens of Maryville.

The committees at Harmony for the homecoming were:

Management—Eva Heflin, Bige Lawson, Hubert Null, John Anderson and Mathias Casteel.

Speakers—C. E. Patterson, James Lewis, Alfred Hunt, Harry Martin.

Grounds—Elmer Porter, Bert McKee, Joe Trullinger, Harry Lewis.

PURE-FOOD CHEW IS "OLD KENTUCKY"

Made in a Great Modern Factory, It is Clean, Pure, Wholesome and Satisfying

FRUITY-SWEET IN FLAVOR

When you put a chew of tobacco into your mouth, you want to be sure that it is clean and pure.

Plug tobacco is the most wholesome and satisfying form in which tobacco can be used, and Old Kentucky is the cleanest, purest of plugs. It is made in a modern factory—spotlessly clean and perfectly sanitary.

Then, too, in Old Kentucky you get the mellow taste of the most deliciously mild tobacco leaf that grows.

Old Kentucky is made of the choicest Kentucky Burley, each leaf being selected with more painstaking care than is the case with any other plug tobacco.

And the pure flavor of that leaf is carefully retained—you get the real Burley taste.

Chew Old Kentucky for genuine chewing satisfaction.

Try a 10c pocket plug to-day.

The Old Showman

He Tells How He Invented a New Animal.

By M. QUAD

Copyright, 1916, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

"Gentlemen," began the old showman as his little crowd of admirers assembled to listen to his tale, "did any of you ever hear of an animal called a 'guyasticutus?'

"There never was such an animal," replied one. "There is such a word as guyasticutus, but it is a slang word. When you call a man a guyasticutus you express your contempt for him."

"My friends, you are wrong, and I shall take great pleasure in convincing you of the fact. I can't say that such an animal exists now, but he surely did forty years ago, for I invented him myself."

"Give us the yarn!" was called out from every one.

"Well, I was head keeper of the menagerie traveling with the circus. We had started out of winter quarters with five hyenas in the cage, but four of them had gone dead on us. I guess it was pneumonia that carried them off. The one left was an old he hyena, and he could stand any sort of weather and take the bumps of the country highways. However, after his companions had departed this life we saw a change in him. He didn't fall sick, but he got lonesome and sulky.

"There were daily complaints that our hyena was a fraud, and I was wondering what we could do about it when the boss came to me one day and said:

"'George, that old hyena is making trouble for us. What's the matter with him anyhow?'

"'I guess he is tired of being a hyena,' I replied.

"'But he can't be anything else, can he?'

"'Why, we can't make a bird of him, but maybe I can make some other animal of him.'

"'Then do it, man.'

"I changed the hyena's food a dozen times and gave him whisky to lap instead of water," said the old showman, "but it didn't improve him any, and I set myself to wonder how I could make him over. The bright idea came to me at last, and one Sunday, when we had a lazy day of it, I bought various paints and brushes. There was a farmer's hired man hanging around the show. He had deserted the plow for the romance of the circus. He had offered to work for $5 a week and his board, but I had no room for him. When I got the idea of making the hyena over I beckoned to this chap and said:

"'Joshaway, I will give you $5 a week and your board if you will do what I want you to do. It concerns the old hyena in the cage over there. I want to make a guyasticutus of him.'

"Joshaway promised, and the first thing to do was to tie the old hyena up. We got ropes and straps around his legs and a muzzle over his nose, and then went to work with the paints. He didn't give us much trouble; he was too lonesome and homesick for that. We gave him bright green ears; we gave him a bright red nose and red eyebrows; we spotted his body here and there with green, red, blue, yellow and black paints. We put a dozen rings around his tail, and we painted his legs one color and his feet another. Say, boys, when we got through with that hyena we had to sit back and roar with laughter.

"We had a special cage made for him and gave it such a position that only the front with its iron bars could be seen. Behind it on a chair was Joshaway, the young man who was looking for romance. He did all the talking, but it seemed to come from the guyasticutus. Joshaway had a voice like the filing of a saw, and his talk was a great success. The animal in front of him went on with a long rigmarole as to his forest home in Honduras and what he did there.

"The fatal day did not arrive until we had shown that guyasticutus for two years and a half. I renewed the paint on him every other Sunday and saw to it that he had the choicest kind of food."

"But what about the fatal day?" was queried.

"Oh, yes, about that fatal day," replied the old showman. "Well, it came about in this way: That young man Joshaway undertook to eat an apple while he was giving his talk, and the seed of the fruit got into his throat and stuck there. He had to choke and cough and sputter, and the fact that there was a man somewhere hidden behind the guyasticutus could not be concealed. There were shouts of excitement and derision and calls for an investigation. Half a dozen men pressed forward and seized the cage and pulled it off its benches. That same half a dozen men seized Joshaway by the neck or somewhere else as he still choked and sputtered over the seeds and brought him out for the crowd to pick on. In just one minute it was plain that the public had been swindled for years. They had had a guyasticutus instead of a hyena and had double their money's worth, but they wanted their revenge, and they took it. The cage was kicked about until it was smashed and its occupant was killed, and they stepped on Joshaway and poked and pounded him until he would never again feel romantic, and the fight spread until something like a thousand men and women were engaged in it. We had to stop the circus performance and pack up and move on, and we had to go for a full hundred miles before we heard the last of our scheme to outdo natural history."

15 MEN CAUGHT IN MINE.

Fear Felt For Lives at Joplin Because of Floods.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Joplin, Mo., June 19.—Great fear is felt for the lives of fifteen men who are believed to have been caught by flood waters in the Quaker mine here. The shafts and tunnels of the mine were filled with water suddenly as the result of a heavy downpour. A large group of rescuers are at the scene.

TOYS HIS FIRST GIFTS TO GIRL HE COURTED

Bride, Twenty-three Years Old, Marries Father's Friend, Thirty-nine Years Her Senior.

New York.—A romance that had its beginning in the close friendship between the bride's father and the elderly bridegroom resulted recently in the marriage of Miss Mabel Evelyn Cristadoro of Flushing, N. Y., to Harrison Hodges, purchasing agent for the Long Island railroad. Mr. Hodges, whose home is at 58 West Fifty-seventh street, is sixty-two years old, while his bride is twenty-three.

Mr. Hodges has passed practically his whole life in the railroad business and is very widely known. Many years ago Miss Cristadoro's father, Charles Cristadoro, also was engaged in the railroad business. A close friendship sprang up between the men, and almost from the day of her birth Mr. Hodges evinced a deep interest in the daughter of his friend and companion.

At first, the bride said laughingly, Mr. Hodges' gifts to her were toys and the other "goodies" usually so acceptable to children. In recent years, however, friends of Miss Cristadoro became convinced that there was something more than casual friendship for the young woman in the attentions bestowed upon her by Mr. Hodges. They were not surprised recently when it became generally known that they were to be married, although Mr. Hodges had been looked upon as a confirmed bachelor.

FOOT IN FROG; NOW DEAD.

Directed Work of Rescue After Twenty-four Cars Mangled Him.

Altoona, Pa.—After preparing to make a coupling in the Pennsylvania yards here, Brakeman H. Ward Hall slipped from his car, and the next instant his right foot was caught in a switch frog. He struggled to free himself, but could not.

Then he tried frantically to save himself by signaling the engineer, who was pushing a draft of twenty-four cars toward him, but the man on the locomotive could not see him.

When members of his crew found him later his right arm and right leg had been severed and he was pinned under a big steel car, but still conscious. Every car had run over him.

He directed the work of the men who were rescuing him and was rushed to the hospital, where he died four hours later.

Asks $1 on Ring, Offered $200.

Kansas City.—A ring which she had found and with which her children had played occasionally for two or three years was taken to the municipal loan office by a poor woman, who thought she might borrow a dollar on it. "Yes, we'll let you have a dollar or more," the manager said. "I'll let you have $200 on it, if you wish." The diamond in the ring was said to be worth $300. The woman said she supposed the diamond was an imitation.
